

FOR YOUR SAFETY: The Historic Dockyard Chatham is private property and a working historic dockyard with the possibility of moving plant and vehicles. To all visitors, tenants, invitees (authorised and unauthorised): Please keep to designated paths and roadways but please be aware that cobbled areas, paved areas, timber, steel etc. walkways within the dockyard may not always be even and can be slippery when wet. This may make some areas unsuitable for people with access problems or the elderly. You are advised to wear suitable footwear and we reserve the right to refuse admission into the dockyard, any exhibit or area within, to anyone not wearing such. Please do not touch or climb on any exhibit unless invited to do so. The owner and occupier of the dockyard will not be held liable for any loss, damage or injury that is suffered to person or property whilst you are within The Historic Dockyard Chatham (however such loss, damage or injury is caused). PARKING IS AT YOUR OWN RISK
